Photography of mysterious landscapes fill gallery at the Muskegon Museum of Art

MUSKEGON, MI — The Muskegon Museum of Art presents David Lubbers: The Mysterious Landscape beginning Thursday, January 19. The exhibition features a masterful display of mysterious, and sometimes haunting, landscape photography by Michigan Photographer, David Lubbers.

Over the span of his 40-year photography career, David Lubbers traveled the world telling stories through the lens of his camera. His photographs focus primarily on the complex forms and patterns in nature and contain a sense of mystery and surreal moments in time.

David Lubbers: The Mysterious Landscape is a celebration of Lubbers' career as an accomplished Michigan artist. This exhibition is presented in collaboration with the Grand Valley State University Art Gallery. From January 6 – April 29, 2023, GVSU will be presenting Reflections of Beauty: Photographs of Michigan by David Lubbers at the L.V. Eberhard Center in Grand Rapids.

A public Opening Reception for David Lubbers: The Mysterious Landscape will be held at the Muskegon Museum of Art on Thursday, January 19 at 5 PM with an Artist Talk in the gallery at 6 PM.

David Lubbers: The Mysterious Landscape will be on display from January 19 through May 14, 2023. The Muskegon Museum of Art is open Tuesdays – Sundays from 11 AM – 5 PM, with extended hours on Thursdays to 8 PM. General admission into the museum is $10 for adults, $8 for seniors 65+, $6 for children under 16, and free for MMA members. General admission is free for everyone on Thursdays thanks to The Meijer Foundation.

David Lubbers: The Mysterious Landscape is underwritten by Mike and Pat Wade.
