Experience the nostalgia of Little Golden Books at the Muskegon Museum of Art

MUSKEGON, MI — The Muskegon Museum of Art is excited to present an exhibition featuring over sixty original illustrations from America's most-loved picture books, Little Golden Books. Golden Legacy: 80 Years of Original Art from Golden Books will be on display at the Muskegon Museum of Art from February 16 to April 30.

From the Random House Archives, Golden Legacy: 80 Years of Original Art from Golden Books features illustrations from beloved Golden Book classics such as The Poky Little Puppy, Tootle, Home for a Bunny, The Color Kittens, I Can Fly, and more.

An opening reception will be held on Thursday, February 16 at 5 PM. This is a free and family-friendly reception with a Golden Books themed art activity and story time with MMA Docents. Additional free, family-friendly, events throughout the course of the exhibition are posted on the MMA website.
